

Prof. Rob McCusker (Member)

Professor Rob McCusker is the Transnational Crime Director at Dubai Vigilance Group.

Rob has demonstrable professional expertise in transnational (cross-border) crime, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering and counter-procurement fraud.

Rob is recognized and utilized as a provider of lateral rather than vertical thinking and is valued by clients for advocating proactive rather than reactive solutions. Rob has a proven ability to design, manage and disseminate the results of a variety of projects within budget and within allotted timeframes and has a highly developed and recognized capacity to identify, create and maintain strong working relationships with key stakeholders within government, law enforcement, intelligence and business organizations both nationally internationally.
